La comunità del Collegio

Gli studenti internazionali del Collegio, grazie alla vita studentesca vivace, possono partecipare a un'esperienza universitaria di alto livello che mira a formare studenti altamente qualificati in grado di contribuire significativamente alla vita universitaria e all'ambiente culturale e scientifico del territorio. L'opulenta città di Venezia, con la sua ricca storia, offre un unico stato di esperienze intellettuali e culturali, che parziali sulla retta e sulle spese di tesi, offrono un gran numero di riduzioni sia totali che parziali sulla retta e sulle spese di tesi.

Il Collegio Internazionale Ca’ Foscari è un honours university college which attracts gifted and high-achieving students from Italy and around the world. During the academic year, the students of the College live on the Island of San Servolo, an international residential campus located in the Venice Lagoon. The International College each year admits Italian and international students, according to strict academic selection criteria. The College community is a lively, thanks to the international and interdisciplinary background of the students, while studying at the College, students can choose among three Minor courses of study, attending lectures and workshops.
