IN VIEW OF the research programmes for awarding of the fellowships, established by the Piano Triennale di Dipartimento and voted by SA in 28/11/2012;

HAVING REGARD TO the resolution of the Decree of the Director of the Department of Philosophy and Cultural Heritage Rep. 391 prot. 42914 del 10 ottobre 2014 containing declaration of financial backing charged to budget UA.A.DP.FBC, COAN A.C.03.01, as well as of an extra amount aimed at covering actual research costs, equal to 5% of ‘gross to the recipient’ amount.

establishes the following:

Art. 1 - Scope

1. A public selection is announced for the awarding of 1 research fellowship lasting 12 months, with the possibility of renewal within the limits of art. 2 of the Regulations for awarding of university research fellowships, which will be subject to a specific contract.

The expected starting date is December 2014.

The research fellowship amounts to Euro 20.500,00 per year gross to the recipient, net of the expenses to be sustained by the Provider. The amount may be subject to adjustment in the event of variations in the law. An extra amount aimed at covering actual research costs, equal to 5% of 'gross to the recipient' amount (1.025,00 Euro).

2. The research fellowship is awarded for the purpose of collaboration with the research in the scientific areas of interest of the Department specified below:

<tr>
<th>Area (Scientific Disciplinary Sector Groups): L-ART/01, History of Medieval Art, in particular the research theme: 'Venice, Byzantium and the Mediterranean world: patronage, circulation of artists and artifacts between the 9th and 15th centuries'</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Duration 12 months renewable</td>
</tr>
</table>

3. The selection aims to ascertain the scientific-professional requirements deemed necessary for carrying out the above research activities.

Art. 2 – Requirements for participation in selection procedure

1. Citizens belonging to European Union member states and non-community citizens in possession of the following qualifications may take part in the selection: PhD and scientific-professional curriculum appropriate for the research activities of the programmes specified in the preceding article 1, in accordance with the university Regulations for research fellowships, art. 5.

2. Qualifications obtained abroad will be examined by the Committee, in accordance with the following art. 4, which may consider them as being equivalent for the purposes of admission, without prejudice to the current laws (for further information see http://cimea.it/default.aspx?IDC=129).

3. Candidates must be in possession of the requirements at the deadline established by this selection procedure announcement.

4. Those who have a degree of kinship or affinity, up to and including the fourth degree, with a professor belonging to the department or to the department issuing the call for applications, or with the Rector, the Director-General or a member of the University Board of Directors are not eligible for fellowships and are therefore automatically excluded from participation in the selection procedures.

4 bis. The following are not eligible for fellowships: permanent employees of the universities, public research institutions and bodies, the National Council for New Technology, Energy and the Environment (ENEA) and the Italian Space Agency (ASI), institutions whose scientific specialisation diploma has been recognised equivalent to the title of PhD in accordance with article 74, fourth paragraph, of the DPR of 11th July 1980, no. 382, in accordance with the relative budget availability.

5. Candidates are admitted to the selection conditionally; the University will exclude, by motivated provision, candidates who are lacking the prescribed requirements. Said provision is notified to the party concerned by registered letter with recorded delivery or by telegram on the request of the party concerned.

Art. 3 – Application for participation in the selection and term

1. For participation in the selection for awarding of the fellowship indicated in the preceding article 1, the candidate is required to submit an application with relative documentation.
2. The application for participation in the selection, drawn up on ordinary paper according to the format specified in the university web page (which can be found by following the path Ca’ Foscari University of Venice - English website > Research > Support for research activities > Fellowship Programmes of Ca’ Foscari University), must be compiled, dated, signed, addressed and submitted, together with the relative documentation, failing which the candidate will be excluded from the selection, to the Director of the Department of Philosophy and Cultural Heritage, Università Ca’ Foscari Venezia, at Dipartimento di Filosofia e Beni Culturali, Palazzo Malcanton Marcorà, Dorsoduro 3484/D, 30123, Venezia, by and no later than 20 days (04/11/2014, 2:00 pm) from the date of affixing on the official notice board and publication of this announcement in the university web pages (which can be found by following the path Research > Becoming a researcher at Ca’ Foscari > Research fellowships > Research Fellowship Calls) and in the web pages of the MIUR (Ministry of Education, Universities and Research) http://bandi.miur.it/bandi.php/public/cercaFellowship and European Union http://ec.europa.eu/euraxess/index.cfm.

This term constitutes the deadline for the selection procedure.

If the deadline falls on a Saturday or a holiday, the deadline is extended to the first working day thereafter.

3. The forms for participation in the selection procedure are available in the web page of this University which can be found by following the path Ca’ Foscari University of Venice - English website > Research > Support for research activities > Fellowship Programmes of Ca’ Foscari University

4. In the application the candidate must clearly specify the research fellowship for which s/he wishes to be selected.

5. The documented application can be delivered by hand to the secretariat of the organization structure, Palazzo Malcanton Marcorà, Dorsoduro 3484/D, Venezia, at the following times:

   From Monday to Friday from 8:00 am until 2:00 pm

6. The documented application can also be forwarded by post, by registered letter with recorded delivery (see previous par. 2). In this case, proof of receipt will not be the mailing postmark but the date of receipt by the Administration, which must be by and no later than the deadline for the selection procedure.

7. Applications can also be sent by certified email to the certified email address of Ca’ Foscari University, Venice: protocollo@pec.unive.it by the above term. The application must be sent only from another certified email address. In the subject of the email sent to the certified email address, specified above, indicate [Research fellowship – Department of Philosophy and Cultural Heritage – title of fellowship: SSD L-ART/01].

8. Applications can also be sent e-mail to ricerca.fbc@unive.it. In the subject of the email sent to the certified email address, specified above, indicate [Research fellowship – Department of Philosophy and Cultural Heritage – title of fellowship: SSD L-ART/01].

9. The email and certified email must contain:

   a. application
   b. declarations pursuant to the DPR 445/2000 duly signed, accompanied by a copy of a valid identity document scanned in PDF format
   c. further attachments (see clauses 1, 5), also sent exclusively in PDF format.
Transmission of the above-mentioned documentation in different formats (e.g. .doc, .xls) will result in exclusion from the selection.

10. Regardless the type of application’s submission, the photocopy of a valid identity document of the candidate shall be attached; failure to do so will result in the application being rejected.

11. Applications that are not signed, are illegible or do not contain the required personal information and applications which, for any reason, reach this University beyond the term specified in paragraph 2 cannot be accepted, and therefore will not be taken into consideration (or paragraph 5 for application reach by hand).

12. Without prejudice to the provisions of art. 6, all communications concerning the public selections announced hereunder are sent to the parties concerned by certified email, registered mail with recorded delivery or telegram.

13. In the application the candidate must declare his/her surname and first name, date and place of birth, taxpayer’s code and residence, in addition to:

a) the code of the research fellowship;
b) the scientific disciplinary sectors;
c) the possession of any PhD, with the date on which it was obtained and the University where the course was held. Candidates in possession of a qualification obtained abroad must also specify whether, under the current laws, it has been declared equivalent to the Italian qualification;
d) nationality;
e) to be fit for the fellowship;
f) whether s/he has received a PhD grant;
g) whether s/he has already received a research fellowship under art. 22 of law no. 240/2010;
h) whether s/he has already held contracts under art. 24 of law no. 240/2010;
i) if s/he is a non-European citizen residing in Italy, possession of a residence permit valid at the deadline of the call for applications;
j) confirmation that s/he is aware that awarding of the fellowship is not compatible with the positions referred to in art. 11, without prejudice to the provisions of the Regulations for awarding of the university research fellowships and the current laws;
k) the choice of the foreign language/s in which to be tested, if art. 5 of this call offers a choice of foreign languages in which to be tested during the interview;
l) indication, where scheduled (art. 5), of the candidate’s intention to avail himself/herself of the option to be interviewed by video;
m) the possession of the evaluation criteria listed in art. 5;
n) the title of the proposed research project;
o) if relevant, the request to be interviewed and take the other foreseen tests in English or another language, if specifically foreseen by this call;
p) any other items specifically required in articles 1 and 5;
q) disabled candidates, in accordance with the law of 5th February 1992 no. 104 and subsequent amendments and additions, shall make a specific request in relation to their disability concerning any aids they require in order to take any tests and sit the interview.

14. Lack of the declarations in accordance with letters c), m), n), p) will result in exclusion from the selection.

15. The application must contain the email and/or ‘Posta Elettronica Certificata’ (certified email) address, if possessed, and the address elected by the candidate for the purposes of the selection. Any variation must be promptly notified to the Department to which the application has been addressed.

16. The University accepts no liability in the event of the recipient being untraceable or dispersion of the communications due to inaccurate indication of the domicile by the candidate, failure or delay in communication of variation of domicile or causes not depending on the University, or for any postal or telegraphic errors or errors attributable to third parties, chance events or force majeure.

17. The declarations made in the application must be considered issued in accordance with the DPR no. 445/2000 and subsequent amendments, by candidates entitled to make use of the simplified administrative certifications permitted by the above decree.

18. Candidates shall enclose with their application:

a) their scientific-professional curriculum, the original copy of which must be signed, specifying the educational qualification possessed for the purposes of access to the selection and a detailed description of the candidate’s scientific-professional qualifications; the curriculum must contain a declaration, pursuant to the DPR 445/2000 and subsequent amendments and additions, that the information provided corresponds to the truth, and authorisation for processing of the candidate’s personal data for the purposes of this selection procedure pursuant to the Legislative Decree 196/2003;

b) a list of the candidate’s scientific publications or the texts of publications themselves in PDF format;

c) declaration of absence of kinship or affinity, up to and including the fourth degree, with a professor belonging to the Department issuing the call or with the Rector, the Director-General or a member of the University Board of Directors;

d) declaration to fulfil the additional evaluation criteria listed in art. 5;

e) the proposed research project mentioned in the application;

f) any other items specifically required in articles 1 and 5.

19. Candidates must demonstrate possession of the qualifications (excluding the publications) by means of the declarations established by the DPR no. 445/2000 referred to above.

20. The same procedures as those established in the previous paragraphs for Italian citizens apply to the citizens of the European Union. Citizens of countries not belonging to the European Union regularly residing in Italy can use the self-certifications established by the DPR no. 445/2000 referred to above only in respect of the countries, personal qualities and facts that can be certified or attested by Italian public bodies, without prejudice to the special provisions contained in the laws and regulations concerning immigration and the status of foreigners.

21. Outside the cases provided for in the preceding paragraph, citizens of countries not belonging to the European Union authorised to reside in the territory of the Country can use the aforementioned self-certifications if the same are produced under international agreements between Italy and the country of origin of the declarant.

22. The curriculum, the list of publications (or the publications themselves), the research project, the declaration concerning absence of kinship or affinity and all the required attachments to the application must be delivered or sent by post together with the application, beyond the term specified in paragraph 2 cannot be accepted, and therefore will not be taken into consideration (or paragraph 5 for application reach by hand). Failure to do so will result in the application being rejected.

23. The University performs sample checks on the truthfulness of the declarations made by the candidates in the applications and in the curriculum, reserving the right to request the original copies of the publications indicated in the application. If the above check reveals that the content of the declaration is not true, the declarant will forfeit any benefits resulting from the provision issued on the basis of the untruthful declaration, without prejudice to the provisions of the criminal code and relevant special laws.

Art. 4 – Selection Committee

1. A Selection Committee is purposely set up, appointed in accordance with art. 8 of the Regulations, for awarding of the research fellowships.

2. Prior to examination of the applications, the Committee determines the general criteria for evaluation of the scientific-professional qualifications required for the participation in selection, the research project proposed, the interview and the evaluation criteria described in articles 1 and 5, with regard to their specific relevance to the research activity subject of this call. The Committee also establishes, for each type of qualification, the score to be attributed, in accordance to the evaluation grid defined by the Regulations for Awarding of Research Fellowships (see article 6).

3. The selection reports will be approved by decree of the Rector and made public as established by art. 9 and 10 of the University Regulations for research fellowships.

Art. 5- Assessment procedure

1. The selection is made by assessment of the scientific-professional qualifications of the candidates, the curriculum vitae et studiorum and scientific publications integrated by a research project, drawn up according to the scheme provided in the web pages of this University (which can be found by following the path Ca’ Foscari University of Venice - English website > Research > Support for research activities > Fellowship Programmes of Ca’ Foscary University > Documentation for participation in the call) as well as by an interview.

2. Candidates are admitted to the interview on the basis of assessment of their scientific-professional qualifications and the research project submitted. The interview aims to assess the candidates’ skills and expertise on the following subjects:

Medieval Art in Venice and in the Mediterranean world between 9th and 15th centuries, focused on: relations with Byzantium; issues related to patronage and circulation of artists and artifacts; reuse of spolia. Reading skills on, at least, one foreign language relevant to the research proposal.

3. Candidates whose qualifications are judged to be insufficient by the Selection Committee, in accordance with the preceding art. 4, are excluded from the interview. The candidate must reach a minimum threshold of 56/80, as defined in article 6.
4. Exclusion is justified in detail in the selection reports which can be accessed in accordance with law 241/90, and as established also in the subsequent art. 8.

5. In addition to the publications, the following qualifications are considered as evaluation criteria:

a. having recently submitted a Marie Curie / ERC / FIRB (a national Fund for basic research investments) proposal, which passed all evaluation thresholds set out in the relevant call or having already successfully completed a Marie Curie / ERC / FIRB project;

b. specialisation diplomas and attendance certificates at post-graduate specialisation courses, obtained both in Italy and abroad, the performance of documented research activity in public and private organisations with contracts, study grants or assignments both in Italy.

6. In the case of foreign candidates resident outside Italy, and candidates who reside over 200 km from the selection centre, the interview can be held by video, subject to consent of the Selection Committee and once technical feasibility has been verified.

Art. 6 – Selection and formation of the classification

1. For drawing up of the classification and consequent identification of the candidate to whom the research fellowship will be awarded, the Selection Committee can award a total of 100 points, to be allocated as follows, as established by the Regulations for awarding of the research fellowships (See Annex A):

a. Qualifications (including publications) up to 50 points;

b. proposed research project up to 30 points Threshold for admission to interview: up to 56/80.

c. Interview up to 20 points Threshold of interview: up to 14/20.

   Positive result: the sum of the points assigned to a, b, c elements is equal to (or greater than) 70/100

2. Candidates are admitted to the interview if assessment of the qualifications and research project results in a score equal to or greater than 56/80.

3. The interview will be held in any case on 13/11/2014 at 12.15pm at Dipartimento di Filosofia e Beni Culturali, Palazzo Malcanton Marcrèa, Dorsoduro 3484/D, Venezia, Sala Biral – 4th floor. The list of candidates admitted to the interview will be published on 11/11/2014.

4. Publication of the above calendar and of the list of the candidates admitted to the interview constitutes notification to all intents and purposes of the call for applications. Candidates are therefore required to report, with valid identification document, without any notice, to the venue indicated, on the day and at the time specified in the public notice.

5. Absence of the candidates at the tests and/or at the interview will be considered to all intents and purposes as a withdrawal from the selection, whatever the cause.

6. The interview is held publicly. Candidates are deemed to have passed the interview if they reach a minimum score of 14/20.
7. Candidates are considered suitable for the specific research activity if the sum of the points assigned to the qualifications (and to the other tests, if applicable) and to the interview is equal to or greater than 70/100.

8. On the basis of the scores attributed, the Committee formulates a classification in order of merit.

9. In the event of two or more candidates obtaining the same score at the end of the selection, the younger candidate will be preferred.

10. In the event of withdrawal or non-acceptance of the selected candidate within the terms communicated by the department or early termination of the collaboration in the research activity, the classification can be used according to the order in which the candidates are listed, as established by the Regulations for awarding of the research fellowships (articles 9 and 18, par. 6).

Art. 7 – Awarding of the research fellowship – Research fellowships to non-EU citizens

1. Having received the selection documents, and at the outcome of the checks scheduled by art. 9, par. 5 of the Regulations for awarding of the research fellowships, the Rector approves, by his own decree, the classification and the selection procedure reports and makes them public according to the procedures specified in the following art. 8.

2. The Research Area deals with the requirements of the preceding paragraph and the further requirements indicated in the above-mentioned art. 9 of the Regulations. The Director of the Department/Center of Philosophy and Cultural Heritage at which the research programme will be conducted awards the research fellowship to the winner, subject to ascertainment of the prescribed requirements.

3. The latter shall accept the award within 10 days from receipt of the communication by signing the relative contract at the competent office of the Department of Philosophy and Cultural Heritage, which will establish the terms of and procedures for the collaboration and allocation of the grant, within the terms set in art. 1.

4. The research fellowship can be renewed, subject to the necessary financial backing, in the manner and under the terms established by articles 2, 4 and 13 of the Regulations for awarding of the research fellowships and by art. 11 of this call.

5. Candidates who are citizens of non-EU countries, already residing in Italy, must prove that they are in possession of a residence permit valid at the deadline of the call for applications.

6. Outside the cases in the preceding paragraph, the department that has requested the grant implements, in conjunction with the competent administrative offices, the procedures for obtaining the residence permit for scientific research pursuant to art. 27 ter of the D.LGS. no. 286/1998 and subsequent amendments.

Art. 8 – Publication of the selection procedure

1. Publication of the results of all the selection phases is ensured by affixing of a notice at the premises of the department concerned, in the spaces provided, with indication of the scores assigned to the qualifications, to the research project, and to the interview and the final classification. The selection documents are made public also in the university website and in the other web pages as established by the current regulations.
2. Access to the selection documents is guaranteed in accordance with the law of 7th August 1990, no. 241 and subsequent amendments and additions and relative internal implementation regulation.

Art. 9 – Activity of the research fellow

1. The activity of the research fellow is conducted autonomously and without set working times, solely within the limits of the research programme and the indications provided by the research coordinator, who will act as tutor.

2. In the event of absence or impediment of the latter, the functions of tutor will be carried out by another member of the teaching staff purposely appointed by the department.

3. The department will provide the research fellow with the supports necessary for carrying out the research programme. Access to the premises and equipment and use of the technical-administrative services are also guaranteed. An extra amount, equal to 5% of annual ‘groo to recipient’ amount, will be allocated for covering research expenses, such as travel costs, data acquisition, equipment, consumables and so on.

4. The activity of the research fellow in no way constitutes a subordinate working relationship and does not give rise to rights in respect of access to permanent employment at the University.

Art. 10 – Intellectual property, patentability and confidentiality

1. The legal and economic aspects relative to protection and exploitation of all the results of the research will be established by the contract stipulated with the winning candidate/s in compliance with the current legislation and the rules of the university concerning patents and industrial property.

Art. 11 - Incompatibility – Ban on accumulation – Suspension of activity

1. Research fellows can hold teaching contracts within the University and can be part of the examining committees as experts in their subject.

2. The research fellowship may not be accumulated with study grants awarded for any reason, except for those awarded by national or foreign institutions for stays abroad in order to integrate the research activity of the grant holder.

3. The research fellowship is not compatible with participation in degree courses, specialist or master degree, PhD with grant or medical specialisation, in Italy or abroad, and entails extended unpaid leave for public administration employees, even if part-time employed, without prejudice to the provisions contained in the laws concerning the appointment of paid assignments to full-time civil servants.

4. The duration of the relations between the University and the same person, including any renewals, may not in any case exceed 4 years, including different contracts stipulated with different universities, also for non-continuous periods, according to the provisions of the law 240/2010 art. 22 as well as the Regulations for awarding of the research fellowships (art. 2).

5. For the purpose of duration of the above relations, periods of leave due to maternity or for health reasons are not taken into account under the current regulations.
6. The duration of the relations between the University and the same person, who is a research fellow, can exceed 4 years in the cases envisaged by the Regulations art. 2, par. 3 and any subsequent adaptations to national laws.

7. The research fellow may carry out self-employed work or occasional or continuous collaboration, compatibly with the existing research activity and subject to authorisation by the department, on condition that the activity does not involve conflict of interest with the specific research activity carried out by the research fellow and does not damage the university, without prejudice to the provisions of the Regulations and any normative adaptations.

8. The research activity and the grant may be suspended due to compulsory military service, compulsory maternity leave and parental leave, serious infirmity and study grants awarded by national or foreign institutions permitted by the current regulations and not directly linked to the research programme funded, for a maximum of 1 year; in this case the entire duration of the research fellowship grant is not reduced due to the above suspensions.

9. An overall period of justified absence of less than thirty days in one year does not constitute suspension and consequently does not have to be made up.

10. The research fellows, with the exclusion of those who are simultaneously holders of teaching contracts within the university, can attend PhD courses without grant, also as supernumeraries, subject to passing of the entrance tests.

Art. 12 – Method of control and assessment of research fellow activity

1. Without prejudice to the provisions of par. 2 of this article, the research fellow is required to report on his/her research activity whenever requested to do so by the tutor. For said purpose the research fellow may be required to keep a diary-register in which s/he periodically notes the state of progress of the research programme.

2. The research fellow is required to present to the department, at the end of the tenure period and in any case at the end of each year, in the case of a grant lasting several years, a written report on the research activity conducted also for the purpose of adjustment of the amount of the research fellowship grant where scheduled by the contract in accordance with the preceding art. 7. In the report, the research fellow must accurately and thoroughly detail the research methods applied and achievement of the results, also partial, with reference to the specific programme in which s/he collaborates, also for the purpose of renewal of the grant if necessary.

3. The fellow, at the end of her/his research project, shall provide the following scientific products:

   One essay conforms to current scientific standards with results and indication of new perspective on research

4. The Council of the department or the body responsible evaluates the final report, together with the tutor’s remarks about the research methodology and the scientific results, with regard to the achievement of the ‘minimum standard’.

5. In the event of a negative assessment, the Council of the department or the body responsible, having consulted the research fellow, can propose revocation of the grant. Early termination of the collaboration in the research activity is resolved by the Council of the department or the body responsible.

6. At the end of the grant, the above report shall describe accurately and thoroughly the research methods applied and achievement of the goals set by the research programme, also for the purpose of renewal of the grant if necessary.
7. Collaboration in the research activity may be terminated early in cases of serious and documented non-fulfilment by the research fellow notified by the tutor or by the Council of the Department of Department of Philosophy and Cultural Heritage.

Likewise the University is entitled to take any legal action to protect its interests and assets.

Art. 13 – Taxation, social security and insurance

1. In respect of taxation, the grants are subject to the provisions of art. 4 of the law of August 13th 1984, no. 476 and subsequent amendments and additions, and in respect of social security, those of art. 2, paragraphs 26 and following of the law August 08th 1995, no. 335 and subsequent amendments and additions.

3. During the period of compulsory maternity leave, the benefit paid by INPS (National Social Security Institute) in accordance with article 5 of the above decree of July 12th 2007 is integrated up to the entire amount of the research grant by the body responsible for administration and management of the grant.

4. The grants pertaining to this call for applications are subject, in respect of sick leave, to article 1, paragraph 788, of the law of 27th December 2006, no. 296, and subsequent amendments.

5. The financial aspects of the research grants is regulated by the ministerial notes no. 2867 of 15.12.1997 and no. 523 of March 12th 1998; the remuneration, in the light of the resolution no. 17/E of the Ministry of Finance, ref. no. 2000/30703 of February 17th 2000, comes under the category of incomes assimilated to those of subordinate employment since they fall within the scope of art. 50 (ex art. 47), par. 1, letters c) and c)-bis of the DPR no. 917 of December 22nd 1986 and subsequent amendments in the matter of the Income Tax Consolidation Act.

6. The University provides insurance cover for accidents and third party liability for the research grant holders during their research activity.

Art. 14 – Processing of personal information

1. The personal information provided by the candidates in their applications for participation in the selection procedure, pursuant to the Legislative Decree of June 30th 2003, no. 196 and subsequent amendments and additions, will be processed exclusively for the purposes of management of this procedure and any procedures for attribution of the grants in question.

Art. 15 – Withdrawal of documents and publications

1. Candidates shall provide at their own expense for withdrawal of the documentation and publications sent to this University, two months after completion of the selection, barring any disputes in progress.
Art. 16 – Person in charge of the procedure

1. In accordance with the provisions of art. 5 of the law of August 7th 1990, no. 241 and subsequent amendments and additions, the person in charge of the administrative procedure for this selection is Francesca Bernardi, in charge of the Secretary of the Department.

Art. 17 – Final provisions

The University Regulations and the current laws will apply to all matters not covered in the following call.

Venice, 14/10/2014

Rep. n.405/2014

Prot. 43384/2014

The Director of the Department of Philosophy and Cultural Heritage
Prof. Luigi Perissinotto
