1. Presentation

The initiative of Welcome's Got Talent originates as an idea to offer international students, who are currently carrying out their studies at Ca' Foscari, an opportunity to meet and share their interests. Through their video contributions, the students will have the possibility to show their colleagues particular aspects of their personality, as well as talents and passions they pursue. Therefore, this event should be a perfect moment to get together, to reinforce the importance of acquaintance-making and unity, notions that so far have been barely present in the student's exchange mobilities due to the current sanitary emergency.

The goal of this project is not to find, judge or promote your talent, but it is rather an opportunity to get together, relax and enjoy the moment with fellow incoming students. For this reason, we ask the participants to join in with the right spirit and a good mood.

2. To whom it is addressed

In order to participate, a student must belong to one of the following categories: students of incoming mobilities A.Y 2020-2021 (Erasmus+, Erasmus+ ICM, Overseas, SEMP, visiting students), incoming DJD students and degree seeking students.

3. Rules for participation

The concerned students will be able to send their video contributions by uploading it as an attachment when completing the Google form used for registration for the event. The videos can contain musical performances, singing, dancing, and other forms of artistic expressions. Only those videos that can be displayed on a screen will be accepted.

The video material must be accompanied by a short comment, which would include the name of the participant, his matricula number and the description of the performance.

Only contributions from individual students will be accepted, therefore group videos or videos with more than one person won’t be accepted. All the students interested in the event can participate, not only those that study music, sing, dance, and those that possess recognized artistic qualifications, but also those who just want to take up the challenge and demonstrate their passion and artistic aptitude.

Among the contributions, only 10 will be chosen by the Staff of the Counseling and Welcome Unit on the basis of originality and conformity with the spirit and values of this initiative. The selected videos will be presented during Welcome's Got Talent that will be held online via ZOOM platform on the 29th of June 2021 at 14:00.

The 10 selected videos will be shared with the participants of the event and subjected to their vote in order to determine the 3 most liked videos of the 1st edition of Welcome's Got Talent. The holding of this edition of Welcome's Got Talent will be confirmed provided there are at least 15 video contributions that respect the policies listed in sections 4.2 and 4.3 of the present vademecum.

Ca’ Foscari is not in charge of any problem regarding the access, the malfunction, the hindrance of technical instruments, computers, phone lines, the transmission and the Internet connection that could prevent the participation into such an event for reasons that do not depend on it.

No remuneration won’t be awarded for the publication/exhibition/production of the contribution, only the prize defined in point 13, in case of victory.

The participants of the project, with the sending of their contributions, implicitly authorize the Ca’ Foscari University of Venice and its successors in title to reproduce such contribution in the sole occasion of the Welcome’s got Talent on the 29th of June 2021.

The participants of the contest, with the sending of their contributions, implicitly authorize the Ca’ Foscari University of Venice and its successors in title to the processing of personal data pursuant to Regulation EU 2016/679, and Legislative Decree no. 196 of the 30th of June 2003.
4. Accepted dimensions and formats

4.1. The video materials must be in 16:9, in 1:1 or in 4:5 formats, but not in the vertical formats 2:3 and 9:16. The contents of the videos must exclusively be either in Italian or English. Ultimately the video must last less than 3 minutes and its size must not exceed 300 MB.

4.2. The staff of the Counseling and Welcome Unit will evaluate the consistency of the sent materials with the goal of the project. The content of the videos must not include:

- lessons and/or other events, where it is not explicitly allowed to film;
- contents, which are discriminatory, racist, sexist, slanderous, offensive, sacrilegious, deceptive, undignified, vulgar, and in general disrespectful, as well as inappropriate vocabulary that might incite violence or somehow affect the dignity or reputation of the people, the image of the University and its institutions;
- faces of other people without due permission, places that do not belong to Ca' Foscari University of Venice, as well as companies, associations etc;
- contents that violate the privacy of third parties.

4.3. The sent materials must not conflict with the external policy of University; in particular the prohibited materials are those that contain:

- business and advertisement solicitation of various types, political propaganda, electoral campaigns and vote indications, encouragement of illegal activities, attacks, or personal threats, spam, and other contents, which are produced in a language that does not allow Staff members to completely comprehend the content;
- contents of an obscene character, pornography, links to sexual content; and Welcome Unit will be shown in the occasion of the Welcome’s Got Talent and will be subjected to the favorability of the students participating in this initiative. Among the 10 selected videos, three participants will be awarded prizes as a result of the vote on the behalf of the participants and the fourth prize will be assigned by the staff of the Counseling and Welcome Unit. Each video will be used and broadcasted solely on the day of the event. It is forbidden to all participants to record, photograph, screenshot or share in any way the totality or part of the content shared during the online meeting, be they pictures and/or each participant’s data. Ca’ Foscari University of Venice is not responsible for potential disputes regarding the sharing of recordings by third parties during the Welcome’s Got Talent online event. Please note that the submitted videos will be shared by the Counselling and Welcome Unit Staff solely on the day of the event.

7. Exclusion

Videos that will be sent beyond the deadline and are inconsistent with this vademecum, specifically containing minors and people that are not the subjects of the contribution, won’t be considered. Organizers reserve the right to exclude from the event videos inconsistent, in the form and in the subject, with the commonly recognized rules with regard to public morality, ethic, decency, for the safeguard of the participants and the viewers.

Any image considered offensive, improper, violating social and human rights won’t be accepted.

The participants of the event undertake to indemnify the Ca’ Foscari University of Venice and its successors in title from any claim or action by third parties that it could endure as consequence of the violation of any of the parts provided for in this vademecum.

8. Jury and individuation of the winners
The jury is composed of the members of the Counseling and Welcome Unit of the University that have the task of choosing among the sent videos, the 10 best ones according to these criteria:

- Originality
- Creativity
- Valid expression of the artistic form
- Skills and abilities in one or more activities

The composition as well as any decision and judgement of the jury is unquestionable and not appealable.

The 10 videos, selected and reproduced during the Welcome’s got Talent event of the 29th of June 2021 on Zoom will be voted by the viewers live connected to the platform.
The three more voted videos will be rewarded. An additional prize will be awarded by the staff of the Counseling and Welcome Unit to the contribution that will best interpret the sense of the initiative.

6. The awarded prizes

The prizes will be awarded as follows:

1st prize: Ca' Foscari hoodie, Ca' Foscari cup and copybook;
2nd prize: Ca' Foscari backpack, Ca' Foscari pencil and copybook;
3rd prize: Ca' Foscari lunch box, Ca’ Foscari pencil and copybook.

The prize assigned by the staff of the Counseling and Welcome Unit: Ca' Foscari T-shirt and shopper.

11. Copyright

The author of the video, as personally responsible for the shown content, will be the copyright owner of said content. Each author cedes the copyright to Ca’ Foscari University of Venice for the sole purpose of using the content on the day of the Welcome’s Got Talent event 29/06/2021 as specified at point 6.

12. Responsibility

The participation to Welcome’s Got Talent 2021 first edition entails the acknowledgement of the present Vademecum in its entirety.

Each participant is responsible for the content and guarantees to be the author of said content. Each author guarantees to own all the rights of use linked to the material sent for the event. If the videos have not been created by the participants and do not have the rights of exploitation, the participant must release Ca’ Foscari University of Venice from any kind of liability that might be proposed by the rightful holder of the copyright.

The Ca’ Foscari University of Venice is not in any way responsible for any request regarding reparations made by possibly portrayed people or people being parents of minors that could, in any case, appear in the videos: therefore, with the acceptance of the present vademecum, any indemnification with regard to the Ca’ Foscari University of Venice and its successors in title is released.

The participant guarantees to the Ca’ Foscari University of Venice and its successors in title the peaceful enjoyment of the rights on the sent images pursuant to point 6. Consequently, the participant will indemnify the Ca’ Foscari University of Venice and its successors in title from any claim for compensation or injunction that should be presented to it from anyone, as well as from any damage and expense, including legal expenses referring to violations of the rights of third parties for which they are responsible. The Ca’ Foscari
University of Venice and its successors in title cannot be held responsible for the use that third parties can possibly make of the videos pursuant to point 6.

The participant is held responsible for compensating the Ca’ Foscari University of Venice from any detrimental consequence deriving from the use of the University of the posted images, including any legal expenses, of extrajudicial nature also, whenever the images violate the rights of third parties.

Each participant is civilly and penally responsible of their own content, and relieves the organizers from any kind of responsibility, also towards potential external subjects present in the video, in spite of the regulations in place.

The participant will be responsible for informing the potential subjects in the cases and ways regulated by art. 13 GDPR (General Data Protection Regulation) 2016/679 and, where relevant, the D.Lgs. 30 June 2003 n.196. Each participant must obtain from each subject the permit to broadcast the content. The broadcasted content must not contain data qualified as “sensible” or “particular” in accordance with the privacy policy. Each participant agrees to own the copyright on the submitted content, the digital acquisition and elaboration of the submitted content and is responsible, in accordance with art. 13-14 of the GDPR (General Data Protection Regulation) 2016/679 regarding the processing of personal data.
