The world will be your playground!

BA in PHILOSOPHY, INTERNATIONAL STUDIES AND ECONOMICS

Department of Philosophy and Cultural Heritage
Malcanton Marcorà – Dorsoduro 3484/D, Calle Contarini, Venezia

Degree programme website
ITA www.unive.it/pise
EN www.unive.it/pise-en

Coordinator
prof. Pier Luigi Paltrinieri
gpaltri@unive.it
PISE Philosophy, International Studies and Economics is a new BA course at Ca’ Foscari University of Venice, taught entirely in English.

MULTI-DISCIPLINARY AND INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION

• A wide-ranging introduction to philosophical, economic and international issues that allows for the analysis and interpretation of social, political and economic phenomena.

• Solid foundations in logical reasoning and analytical and critical thinking, making students capable of interpreting the complex and dynamic reality of a globalized world.

• Knowledge of the history and cultures of different countries, micro and macro economics, trade and international relations, political economy and welfare systems at an international level.

CAREERS

PISE will open career opportunities as:

• International relations experts with specific knowledge of economics and of national and international institutions.

• Consultants in the field of international studies and economics.

• Researchers in private and public sectors and academia.

• Managers for international companies and institutions.

• Analysts and journalists in international and national affairs.

• Program taught entirely in English

• Three fields of study: philosophy, economics and international relations

• Flexible, multi-disciplinary, international education

COURSES

• Philosophy

• History of economic thought

• Economics

• Contemporary history

• Politics

• International Relations

• International Law

PISE gives access to the Ca’ Foscari M.Phil.s in Comparative International Relations, Philosophy, Global Development and Entrepreneurship and Economics.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

• Transferable skills and across-the-board decision-making capabilities in complex environments.

• Interpretation of dynamic phenomena reflecting the speed of information flows and the multi-layered effects of strategy and economics.

• The ability to learn from the interaction of philosophical, international relations and economic issues, and to develop autonomous critical judgment.

• Specific skills to communicate information to a variety of audiences and readerships on the themes of globalization and on possible solutions to global problems.