WHO MAY PARTICIPATE:

students of the Dipartimento di Studi Linguistici e Culturali Comparati.

WHAT IT IS ABOUT:

the main goal is to develop cross-cultural and socialization abilities through meetings and fieldwork activities with American students of Wake Forest University Venice Campus and involving professionals of different fields (such as cultural heritage, immigration, the lagoon environment, tourism) and closely coordinated by WFU instructors.

USE OF ENGLISH:

you will work in team with American students, will read and write short texts, elaborate interviews, help translate them into Italian if needed, and will present the final creative research along with your team.

ACCADEMIC CREDITS:

you will get two or three cfu, «crediti di tirocinio per attività sostitutive di stage» depending on the number of hours of attendance.

HOW TO APPLY:

send an email in English or Italian to roberta.cimarosti@unive.it or cimaros@wfu.edu containing a brief description of yourself and of your motivations for partaking in the activities.

DEADLINE:

send your email BY MONDAY 24 FEBRUARY 2020. The program offers up to 12 places and will give priority to highly motivated students who enrol first.
