Call for applications
Academic Year 2020/2021

4 steps to ensure that you will not miss out

Get informed

- Read the call carefully!

Apply to be admitted to the test

- Apply to be admitted to the test and pay the pre-enrolment fee
- For full information and deadlines see art. 4

Prepare for the interview

- Applicants admitted to the interview will be contacted to be informed about date and time

Enrol

- On the 24st of June the list of candidates admitted to the course will be published. Check your position and if you have been admitted to the course make sure to enrol by the 26th of August at 12pm. In order to do so, you will have to fill the enrolment form and pay the first instalment of University fees. If you are not on the list of admitted candidates, check again from the 2nd of September at 4 pm for possible repêchages.

Make sure you meet the deadlines

Failing to meet relevant deadlines or to follow the application guidelines will prevent you from enrolling. Don't take any chance: save deadlines on your phone or tablet calendar!

Art. 1. Purpose of the call and general rules

1. This call regulates the procedure for enrolment in the first year of the study programme Crossing the Mediterranean: towards Investment and Integration (MIM) at Ca' Foscari University of Venice, for the academic year 2020/2021.
2. Once you have successfully enrolled in your degree programme, you will not be able to suspend your studies in order to enrol in another course or participate in inter-university or inter-faculty transfers.
3. Personal data provided by candidates<sup>1</sup> will be processed, on paper or in electronic form, in compliance with current regulations (Italian Legislative Decree 196/2003). For more information, see <https://www.unive.it/pag/34663>
4. Candidates shall be guaranteed access to the records concerned, in accordance with Italian Law 241/1990 and subsequent amendments.
5. You are advised to carry out the enrolment procedures well before the deadlines for admission to the relevant degree programme. The University declines all responsibility for eventual malfunctioning due to technical problems and/or failure to connect due to excess traffic and/or system overload, or for any operational disturbances caused by third parties, unforeseeable circumstances or force majeure.

Art. 2. Available places

1. There are 33 places available for enrolment in the first year of the study programme Crossing the Mediterranean: towards Investment and Integration (MIM).
2. Within the total number of places indicated above, 5 places are reserved to non-EU students resident abroad, who meet the requirements foreseen under the stated M.I.U.R. – Prot. no. 1291 dated 16 May 2008.
3. The enrolment of students with degree qualifications earned abroad (and meeting the requirements foreseen by the M.I.U.R. – Prot. n. 1291, 16th May 2008) is conditional to the submission and evaluation of their academic documentation through the online procedure apply.unive.it; all relevant material will have to be submitted at apply.unive.it by 13 May 2020.

Art. 3. Admission Requirements

1. Except for what foreseen under paragraph 2, one of the following academic qualifications is required for admission to the course:
  - degree;
  - degree awarded by an Italian university according to pre-DM 509/1999 legislation or university diploma;
  - for students with qualification obtained abroad: a three-year degree, to be evaluated by the relevant academic committee.
2. Candidates not yet in possession of the qualifications set out in the previous paragraph may take part in the selection process, if they expect to be awarded their degree prior to enrolment, in accordance to the deadline specified in the call.
3. In order to be admitted to the programme MIM, students will have to demonstrate both relevant personal preparation and specific academic training, as specified in art.11.

Art. 4. Admissions procedures

⚠ Please note that once you have correctly completed all the stages of the online pre-enrolment procedure, you will need to pay the €30 pre-enrolment fee by 13 May 2020, at 12pm. Applications submitted after the deadline or failing to comply with the procedures laid down here will not be evaluated.

4.1. Pre-enrolment online

a) In order to take part in the selection, it is necessary to pre-enrol online; the online procedure will be available on Ca' Foscari's website from 10 March 2020 to 13 May 2020 at 12.00 pm.

The online procedure involves two stages:

- registration on the university website (www.unive.it/registrazione): this consists in providing general personal information, including residence and domicile, when relevant. At the end of the registration process, candidates will receive a User Name and Password, which they will use to access their Personal Area. Access to their Personal Area will be available from the day following the registration; through the Personal Area candidates will be able to access the subsequent enrolment stage.
- enrolment in the admission test; in order to enrol in the admission test, please access your Personal Area on Ca' Foscari website (www.unive.it) and click on the Test for admission feature. In this way candidates will be able:
  - o to indicate a valid identity document (ID, passport or driving license) and to upload it;
  - o to access the tab which will allow the payment of the pre-enrolment fee (see art. 4.2);
  - o to indicate the academic outcomes (see art. 4.3);
  - o to print the receipt attesting the participation to the admission test. The pre-enrolment procedure is not successfully concluded until the receipt has been printed.

b) Candidates should upload the following documents:

- certification of the degree obtained, or transcript of exams for those applicants who have not yet obtained their degree. Certifications should indicate: the name of the University where the qualification was earned, name and discipline of the course completed, date of the award and class/mark of the degree, all courses/exams taken (with related scientific sector where relevant), specifying the number of credits and mark obtained;
  - curriculum vitae (in either Italian, English or French);
  - a recognised language certification attesting English proficiency at least at level B2; in specific cases, applicants may provide evidence that they belong to one of the exemption categories recognised by Ca' Foscari. A list of recognised certifications and of exonerating circumstances can be found at www.unive.it/conoscenze-linguistiche;
  - if held, a recognised language certification attesting French proficiency at least at level B1; candidates who do not hold a language certificate, should nonetheless indicate in the curriculum vitae their level of proficiency in French and the way in which this was acquired. French proficiency will be verified during the admission interview. Please note that all students will have to acquire a certificate DELF B2 by the end of the first year of the Course.
  - a letter of intent (written in either English or French);
  - a short essay (written in either English or French); the essay should not be longer than 5.000 characters, excluding spaces. Candidates should answer one of the following questions: 1) How would you respond to the ongoing refugee crisis? 2) Have you had experiences in the field of mediation? If yes, described them.
  - reference letters (max. 2). (Ideally in either English or French).
- c) Candidates already in possession of the credentials necessary to access the Personal Area (for example ex-students of the University or those who had already enrolled in other University selections) should skip the first phase of the pre-enrolment process.
- d) Candidates' enrolment in the selection process will be confirmed by email once the online procedure has been concluded. The email will be sent to the email address indicated at the time of registration.
- e) No changes can be made once the pre-enrolment procedure is concluded.
- f) For assistance during the pre-enrolment process, candidates should contact immatricolazioni@unive.it.
- g) Non-EU candidates living abroad and candidates with degrees gained abroad must ensure that their academic documents are submitted to apply.unive.it no later than 13 May 2020.

4.2. Pre-enrolment fee

- a) At the end of the online pre-enrolment process, applicants will be required to pay a pre-enrolment fee: applicants should use the tab "pagamenti", which will provide information on how to pay the fee.
- b) The 30 Euro enrolment fee should be paid after having completed the online pre-enrolment process; for applicants living abroad the fees will have to be paid online by credit card.
- c) No methods of payment other than those indicated will be accepted.
- d) The pre-enrolment fee cannot be reimbursed.

4.3. Academic outcomes to be included in the online pre-enrolment process

- a) All candidates should include in their online pre-enrolment
- If already in possession of a degree, the degree mark achieved;
  - If not yet in possession of a degree, the average mark obtained in the exams.

4.4. Support for candidates with disabilities and special educational needs

- a) The admission test is organised by the University keeping into account the specific needs of candidates with disabilities and special needs, according to Law n. 104/1992 and successive amendments. These include candidates with a diagnosis of DSA, according to Law n. 170/2010.
- b) Candidates willing to make use of special needs provisions for the admission test, should apply for it, attaching all relevant certification.

Art. 5. Admission test

5.1. Topics and evaluation of the admission test

1. The admission test will consist in an interview, aimed at ascertaining and evaluating the candidate's general preparation, attitudes and motivations.
2. During the interview the candidate's required linguistic competences in English and French will also be verified.
3. All interviews will take place via skype call.

Art. 6. Taking the admission test

6.1. Venues and times

- a) The list of candidates admitted to the interview will be published on 27 May 2020 on the Course's dedicated webpage, accessible via www.unive.it/cdl/lm8 > Iscrivarsi > Esiti valutazioni.

b) All candidates admitted to the interview stage will be contacted via email to confirm date and time of the interview.

6.2. Documents to be submitted on the day of the test

a) Prior to the interview, candidates will be asked to show a valid identity document (identity card, passport or driving license).

Art. 7. Admission ranking

1. Candidates will be ranked on the basis of the evaluations obtained during the test. In case of equal merit, precedence will be given to candidates already in possession of a degree, over those not yet graduated at the time of pre-enrolment. In case of equal merit between graduates, precedence will be given to the candidate with higher degree marks; in case of equal merit between candidates not yet graduated, precedence will be given to the candidate with the higher weighted average of marks in the exams taken. In case of further parity, precedence will be given to the younger candidate.

2. The list of candidates admitted to the Course will be published on 24 June 2020 on the University's website (www.unive.it); in order to access the list please go to www.unive.it/cdl/lm8 >Iscriversi> Esiti valutazioni. The University will not provide further communication, either by telephone or in writing. The list of candidates admitted to the Course will contain the registration number, which was assigned to every candidate during the pre-enrolment procedure.

3. The list of admitted students will contain information on candidates' studies, minimum curriculum requirements for admission to the Course, and required evidence of language proficiency, as specified in art. 10 below.

Art. 8. Enrolment of admitted students and reserve list

8.1. General principles

a) The enrolment process envisages the enrolment of students with the highest admission scores, followed by the repêchage of students with a lower score, in case of withdrawal of admitted students.

b) Candidates who will fail to enrol according to the timing and the modality envisaged will lose their right to be admitted to the Course.
