

Convegno Internazionale EACEM (European Association of Center of Medical Ethics)

“Religions, Multiculturalism and Bioethics”
Venezia, 10-12 settembre 2009

Thursday, 10 September 2009

Seduta pomeridiana - First Session: Religions, Multiculturalism and Bioethics in Post-Modern Society

Keynote Lectures: Fabrizio Turolto (Italy), Eberhard Schokenhoff (Germany)

Parallel Sessions

- Religion in the Public Arena and Bioethics
- Inter-religious Dialogue and Bioethics
- The Role of Religions in Future Bioethics

General Assembly

Friday, 11 September 2009

Seduta mattutina - Second Session: Looking for Universal Values and General Ethical Standards Inside a Multicultural Context

Keynote Lecture: Roberto Andorno (Switzerland), Henk ten Have (UNESCO)

Parallel Sessions

- Human Rights and Bioethics
- Universal Ethical Standards for Research
- Bioethics Facing the Difference Between Eastern and Western Religions and Cultures

Seduta pomeridiana - Third Session: Towards a Mediterranean Bioethics

Keynote Lecture: Salvino Leone (Italy), Yesim Isil Ulman (Turkey)

Parallel Sessions

- Bioethics in the Context of Inter-religious Dialogue among Abrahamic Religions
- Western Bioethics and Developing World Bioethics: What Dialogue?
- Mediterranean, European, Asian, American and African Bioethics

Saturday, 12 September 2009

Seduta mattutina - Fourth Session: Healthcare in the Context of Migration. The Problem of Cultural Intermediation

Keynote Lecture: Pietro Basso (Italy), Tineke Abma (The Netherlands)

Parallel Sessions

- Education and Access to Healthcare
- Western "Scientific Biomedicine" and "Other" Medicines
- Informed Consent in the Context of Migration

Closing Session