Promote the seminar:

Presence and crisis of being in the work of Ernesto De Martino

prof. Dorothy Louise Zinn, Free University of Bozen-Bolzano

The seminar aims to present the work of Ernesto De Martino by encouraging a re-examination of the concepts of “presence” and “crisis of presence”, with the purpose of reflecting on the relevance of these notions and on their capacity to frame new problems and new perspectives of research. Professor Dorothy Zinn, author of the English translation of “Sud e Magia” and current translator in progress of “La fine del mondo”, will talk with the participants on the work of the Italian ethnologist, whose production is the subject of growing interest abroad, not only among anthropologists. The seminar (which will take place both in presence and online) promotes a critical reflection on Demartinian work with invited colleagues of foreign universities and it is open to the students of the MA in Anthropology, Ethnology and Ethnolinguistics of the University Ca’ Foscari (ACEL). The seminar constitutes a first contribution to the activities of the new Centre for Research in Anthropology, Geography and History (AGeS) of the Department of Humanities.

Friday, Jan 14, 2022 - 3:00 PM (Venice), Sala Morelli, Palazzo Malcanton-Marcorà (52 places, to book please send an email to Francesco Vacchiano: francesco.vacchiano@unive.it).

And, in streaming after registration at: https://unive.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZ0tc-qopzwsGtXuHF7wdGxoon43p3dK-BV (after registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the meeting).

For any additional information please write to Francesco Vacchiano: francesco.vacchiano@unive.it.