 - e) PhD programmes shall mean the courses of the academic system pursuant to Ministerial Decree No. 224/1999 and Ministerial Decree No. 45/2013;
 - f) inter-university courses of study shall mean courses established in agreement with other Italian or international universities;
 - g) student shall mean a person enrolled in a course of study at the University;
 - h) CFU credits shall mean the university training credits provided for by Ministerial Decrees No. 509/1999 and No. 270/2004;
 - i) part-time student shall mean a person who is enrolled in a course of study at the University on a part-time basis, as referred to in Article 25, paragraph 3 of the University Teaching Regulations issued on 4 December 2012 as amended and supplemented.

Art. 2 – Call for applications

1. The Department of Molecular Science and Nanosystems announces a selection by qualifications and interview for awarding tutoring activities for international students enrolled in the English toughed Master's Degree programmes of the Department to 3 (three) competent and meritorious students enrolled in PhD programmes and Master's Degree programmes at Ca' Foscari University of Venice to be carried out during the 1st semester - Academic Year 2022/2023.

Art. 3 - Performance and characteristics of the service

1. Tutors must ensure their availability throughout the entire period of the service.
2. The selected tutors will carry out welcoming activities, administrative and didactic assistance, as well as possible linguistic support for students enrolled in the English toughed Master's Degree programmes of the Department.
3. Specifically, the following activities are available for application:

N. Contracts	Hours	Activities
3	30 each one	Welcoming activities for students enrolled in the English toughed Master's Degree programmes of the Department. Dissemination of practical information regarding the organization of the Master's Degree Courses (lesson times, classrooms, teachers' reception, exams, etc.). Language support.

4. Selected tutors will undergo compulsory training on the activity to be carried out.
5. Successful candidates may have carried out or carry out in the academic year 2022/2023 other specialised and teaching tutoring activities of the University, being aware that the total specialised tutoring activity of each individual tutor may not exceed 90 hours per academic year¹.
6. This tutoring activity is compatible with the award of study grants under Legislative Decree No. 68 of 29 March 2012 (regional grants for the right to study).

Art. 4 - Remuneration

1. For this activity, the tutor will be paid a grant in the form of allowance in the gross hourly amount of € 20.00, also including the charges born by the University.
2. The remuneration is tax-free.
3. The remuneration referred to in paragraph 1 above shall not be paid to the tutor who has failed to complete at least 30% of the maximum number of hours of activities provided. The grant shall be paid even in case of failure to achieve this percentage if the interruption is justified by proven health reasons.
4. The tutor undertakes to activate the CartaConto Ca' Foscari, as the only method for crediting the amount due, within 15 days from the acceptance of the nomination as winner of this selection procedure, at one of the branches of the banking institute that has entered into an agreement with the University. Failure to activate the card will result in forfeiture of the right to receive the amount due².

¹ For proven needs of continuity relating to particularly complex tutoring projects whose fulfilment requires a longer duration, a single tutor may carry out up to 150 hours of tutoring activities.

² PhD students may choose the procedure for having their monthly grant credited: they may activate the CartaConto Ca' Foscari or use their own current account.

Art. 5 - Admission Requirements

1. For admission to the selection referred to in Art. 2, candidates shall fulfil the following requirements, which must be met as of October 10 at 12.00 PM, the deadline for submitting the application.

2. REGULAR REGISTRATION

To be eligible for selection under Art. 2, candidates must:

- a) be duly enrolled for the academic year 2022/2023;
- b) have regularly paid all university fees and contributions for the academic year 2021/2022 and undertake to enrol for the academic year 2022/2023 no later than October 3rd;
- c) have regularly paid only the university fees and contributions for the academic year 2021/2022 if they wish to graduate in the autumn session of the academic year 2021/2022 (October-November 2022.) or in the special session of the same academic year (February-April 2023) and not be enrolled in supplementary years (fuori corso) in the same academic year 2021/2022.

3. ENROLLMENT for the a.y. 2022/2023 AND ACADEMIC REQUIREMENTS

Tutoring activities under this call for applications will be open to students currently enrolled:

- a) in a Master's Degree programme up to the standard duration of studies plus one academic year;
- b) in a PhD programme;
- c) in an inter-university course of study - related to Master's Degree programmes, PhD programmes - to attend part of the activities provided in their study plan at Ca' Foscari University of Venice.

These requirements must be met as of the date of application.

Please note that upon accepting the nomination as winner of this selection procedure, candidates are required to be students at Ca' Foscari University.

4. Period of study shall mean the standard duration, as provided for by the academic regulations set out in Ministerial Decree No. 509/1999 and Ministerial Decree No. 270/2004, of the course of study starting from the first year of enrolment.

First year of enrolment shall mean the first year of enrolment for the first time at any university. All years in which the student has been enrolled in any course of study, at this or another university, other than the one in which they are currently enrolled shall be considered career years. Therefore, the career year may also not coincide with the academic year.

In the above-mentioned count of career years required to claim the benefit:

- a) any years of suspension/interruption of studies shall not be counted.
- b) for students who enrolled in the course as "full-time" students and who, during their university career, switched to "part-time", for the purposes of determining the number of years and the consequent academic requirement referred to in paragraph 5 below, each academic year attended as a "full-time" student shall be counted as two "part-time" years.

For the purposes of determining the number of years and the consequent academic requirement referred to in paragraph 5 below, two academic years attended as a "part-time" student shall be counted as one "full-time" year; the single academic year attended as a "part-time" student shall in any case be counted as one "full-time" year.

5. Students currently enrolled for the academic year 2022/2023 in the first year of the following courses of study:
 - a) Master's Degree programme;
 - b) PhD programme;shall only be required to enrol in the course.
6. Students enrolled, for the academic year 2022/2023, in years following the first³ must meet the following academic requirements as of October 10 at 12.00 PM, the deadline for submitting the application to join the selection procedure:
 - a) for Master's Degree programmes:
 - at least 18 CFU credits for the student enrolled in the second year;
 - at least 60 for the student enrolled in the first supplementary (fuori corso) year.For part-time students enrolled in years following the first, the requirements are as follows:
 - for the second year, 12 CFU credits;
 - for the third year, 24 CFU credits;
 - for the fourth year, 42 CFU credits;
 - for the fifth year, 60 CFU credits.
 - b) for PhD programmes: admission to the following year in accordance with the procedures laid down in the respective teaching regulations.
7. In the case of a transfer from another university or an internal transfer from one course of study to another, only credits awarded for the course in which the student is enrolled shall be valid.
8. Without prejudice to the previous paragraph, CFU credits shall not be considered valid in the following cases:
 - when obtained from previous careers that ended with the award of the degree or following withdrawal/forfeiture or when obtained from other activities, including those undertaken prior to enrolment, following which career credits have been awarded;

³ If the student wishes to graduate in one of the sessions scheduled for the academic year 2021/2022 (autumn session of the academic year 2021/2022 -October-November 2023- or an extraordinary session of the same academic year -February-April 2023 - and has successfully paid all university fees and contributions for the academic year 2021/2022 (see Art. 5, paragraph 1, letter c), the minimum number of credits will be calculated with reference to the academic year 2022/2023 - the year for which the student is applying for tutoring -.

- when obtained from single courses prior to enrolment in the degree and/or Master's Degree programme;
 - when obtained from examinations not fully taken (partial examinations shall not be considered).
9. Students enrolled in a Master's Degree programme may not be holders of an old-system degree, a degree awarded abroad that is considered a second-level degree, a specialised degree, a master's degree, a diploma issued by a Conservatory/Academy of Fine Arts, or a second-level (two-year) academic diploma issued pursuant to Ministerial Decree No. 508/1999.
 10. Students with non-Italian citizenship who are successful in the selection will not be required to certify their Italian language proficiency (B1/ B2 level) if they are enrolled in a Master's Degree programme or a PhD programme and have obtained a high school diploma in the Italian language from an institute with a registered office in Italy and/or a degree in the Italian language from a university with a registered office in Italy.
 11. Obtaining an academic qualification after accepting the nomination as winner of this selection procedure and while carrying out the specialised tutoring activity may not prevent the students from commencing/continuing of the activity.

Art. 6 - Application and submission deadline
