

NOTICE OF SELECTION FOR ADMISSION TO THE EUROPEAN SUMMER ACADEMY in
"Organizing care".
a.y. 2023/2024

GERMAN HANIEL FOUNDATION
Department of Management - Ca' Foscari University Venice

EXPIRY DATE 18/03/2024 12.00 a.m.

The Dean of the Department of Management

HAVING REGARD the University Teaching Regulations
HAVING REGARD the Summer European Academy project organised in cooperation with Copenhagen Business School, Leuphana University of Lünenburg, Université Paris-
Dauphine and University of St. Gallen and funded by German Haniel Foundation started in 2019
HAVING REGARD the proposal of Prof. Monica Calcagno to join the project of the Summer European Academy, sixth edition, whose theme Organizing Care.
CONFIRMED the department's interest in joining the initiative in light of the success of previous editions
HAVING REGARDS The Department decree of the 21st February 2024.

WHEREAS

- that the University guarantees equal opportunities between men and women for access to the selection that is the subject of this notice;
- that the use of the masculine gender to indicate the addressees of this notice is intended to refer to both genders and is therefore only for the sake of simplicity of the text.

Decrees

Article 1 - Announcement

Announcement of the call for selection of 5 (five) students meeting the requirements set out in Article 3 below, for admission to the European Summer Academy entitled "Organizing Care" organised and financed by the German Haniel Foundation of Duisburg in Germany (hereinafter referred to as the "Programme")

Art. 2 - Description

1. The Department of Management adheres to the European Summer project entitled "Organizing Care" organised in cooperation with Copenhagen Business School, Leuphana University of Lünenburg, Université Paris-Dauphine and University of St. Gallen to be held in Berlin from 27 to 31st May 2024
2. German Haniel Foundation promotes and finances the project and, if the lectures are held in Belino, the participating students will be accommodated at the organisation's expense and will receive a contribution towards their travel expenses-
3. Classes will be held in presence and the vehicular language of instruction will be English.
4. Participation in the Summer School may be recognised among the extra-credits (3ECTS) after evaluation of a final paper by Prof. Calcagno, from the Department of Management and reference lecturer for the European Summer Academy Summer School

5. Further information on the programme can be found on the following webpage: European Summer Academy.

Art. 3 - Admission requirements

Five (5) students enrolled in the first or second year of the Master's degree programmes activated by the Department of Management – Venice School of Management will be admitted to participate in the Programme.

Article 4 - Submission of Applications

1. To take part in the selection, the recipients referred to in Article 3 above must fill in the application form available on the following page:

English: <https://apps.unive.it/domandeconcorso-en/accesso/2023-dman-europeansummeracademy>

The application must be accompanied by

- a signed curriculum vitae;
 - a motivational letter in English on the Academy's subject matter;
 - a valid identity document.
2. Applicants whose applications are found to be
- a) received after the deadline
 - b) not drawn up on the online form
 - c) containing untrue statements

Art. 5 - Selection Committee and formation of the ranking list

1. The selection will be carried out by a committee composed of representatives of the Department of Management.
2. The academic career, the motivational letter and an interview aimed at assessing the candidate's personal aptitudes will be assessed.
3. The career will be assessed on the basis of the weighted average of grades.
4. The first 15 candidates from the list published starting from 19th March 2024 will be admitted to the interview.
5. For admission to the interview, the academic career and the motivational letter will be assessed.
5. The interview will be held in person in English on 26th March 2024 starting at 15.00 p.m.
6. Each candidate's final score will be calculated as follows
 - a) 50% to the academic career and motivational letter (and, specifically, 20% of the score will be awarded to the academic career and 30% to the motivational letter)
 - (b) 50% at the interview.

In the event of a tie, preference will be given to the candidate who has acquired more CFUs.

Art. 6 - Publicising the results of the selection

The list of those admitted to the course will be published on the following webpage <https://www.unive.it/pag/47974/> under the heading European Summer Academy starting from 27 March 2024.

2. Within 3 days from the date of publication of the ranking list, and in any case no later than 2nd April 2024, successful candidates accepted for the programme must send a declaration of acceptance of participation in the project by e-mail to international.management@unive.it.

3. In the event of withdrawal or non-communication by an admitted student, candidates will be called up and admitted according to the order established by the selection criteria. Notification of repechage will be made directly to the candidate by e-mail from the Didactic Secretariat of the Department of Management.
4. The Department reserves the right to contact other successful candidates on the ranking list should the number of places available for participation in the European Summer Academy increase.
5. Any communication concerning this call for proposals will be sent to the institutional e-mail address matricola@stud.unive.it.

Art. 7 - Person in charge of the procedure

1. Pursuant to the provisions of Article 5 of Law no. 241 of 07/08/1990, as amended and supplemented, the person responsible for the proceedings of this selection is the Secretary of the Department - Dr. Sonia Pastrello
2. For further information please contact the Teaching Secretariat of the Department of Management (ref. Dr Laura Parisio, tel 0412349119 e-mail: international.management@unive.it)

Article 8 - Processing of personal data

The processing of personal data provided by candidates, or otherwise acquired by the University, is solely for the purpose of carrying out the selection procedure and will take place in accordance with the provisions of applicable national and EU legislation (Legislative Decree 196/2003 and EU Regulation 2016/679). The provision of such data is necessary to assess the participation requirements and the possession of qualifications. Please see the "Privacy" policy available and downloadable from <https://www.unive.it/informativacandidatiselezione>.

The data controller is the Ca' Foscari University of Venice, with headquarters at Dorsoduro no. 3246, 30123

Venice -PEC protocollo@pec.unive.it.

Venice, 4th March 2024.

Signed
The Dean of the Department of Management –
Venice School of Management
Prof. Anna Comacchio

Signed
P.A.
Department Executive Officer
Dr. Sonia Pastrello