RESEARCH
COMMUNICATION
WEEK 2019

Communicating your science

Wednesday 2nd October 2019, h. 10.00-13.00
Ca' Foscari Challenge School, Vega

This workshop will focus on two areas of communication: ways to think about your research and write about it for nontechnical audiences; and how to design effective, engaging posters.

With Francesco Fiondella, Director of Communications, IRI Earth Institute, Columbia University

Workshop organised for professors, researchers, post-docs and PhD students
