The 15th edition of the International Literature Festival Incroci di Civiltà, will take place from 25 to 28 May 2022 in Venice under the direction of Flavio Gregori in the presence of the guest authors and with the participation of the audience.

The festival, conceived and organized by the Ca' Foscari University of Venice in collaboration with the Fondazione di Venezia and the Municipality of Venice and in partnership with numerous national and international institutions, will host as usual personalities from all over the world in order to offer an in-depth image of the contemporary reality.

The event will be held in the Ca' Foscari locations and in other sites throughout the city and will see, among others, the participation of the following authors from the field of international literature and culture:

the Norwegian Roy Jacobsen, the Hungarian László Krasznahorkai, the American Joe Lansdale, the Israeli Eshkol Nevo, the Vietnamese Nguyễn Phan Quế Mai, the Venezuelan Karina Sainz Borgo, the Ukrainian poet Boris Chersonskij (in collaboration with the Brodsky Foundation and the Waterlines project) and the famous film director and author Werner Herzog.

The Ugandan activist Vanessa Nakate will be the protagonist of the last Verso Incroci event which will be held on the 21st of May, a preview of the official opening of the festival starting on the 25th of May.

This is only a glimpse of the authors of the 15th edition of Incroci di Civiltà who will converse in Venice.

The definitive program of the festival will be presented during a press conference which will be held on 11 May at 11:00 in the Aula Berengo of the Ca' Foscari University of Venice (1st floor - Dorsoduro 3246, 30123 Venice).
