INFORMATION AND CONTACTS

The enrolment and tuition fees are € 7.000, to be paid in two instalments. They are comprehensive of course materials, use of the on-campus library and common rooms, online databases and facilities.

Scholarships will be awarded on merit basis by IMEF sponsors to reduce the amount of the tuition fees. The fee reduction (up to € 4.500) depends on the previous academic performance.

Full- or partial-tuition scholarships are available from Generali and Prometeia.

Ca' Foscari has agreements with two different banks (Intesa San Paolo, BNL) giving students the opportunity to find the best way to pay their university fees, through customized loans options.

PRESENTATION

IMEF is a 2nd level Professional Master's Programme in Economics and Finance offered by the Department of Economics of the Ca' Foscari University of Venice.

IMEF is a full time one academic year programme. It is structured in three terms.

The fourth part (July onwards) completes the Master programme through a professional internship.

Participants will be selected by the IMEF Academic Board and the class size is between 10 and 20 students.

The programme is taught entirely in English. Good mathematical and statistical bases are required.

IMEF aims to train students to acquire a deeper and more sophisticated knowledge of economic and financial tools, thus preparing specialists in the fields of the analysis of financial markets, risk measurement and management, banking and corporate finance. The links with financial markets and institutions facilitate contacts with many prospective industry employers and guide individuals through the choice of their career path and job application process.
