Showcasing our Marie Curie Fellows

A seminar series held by Ca’ Foscari University Marie Sklodowska-Curie Fellows, organised by the School for International Education in collaboration with the International College and the International Research Office.

Semester I

November 19th, 11am
Sala Berengo, Ca’ Foscari
Suzanne Blesic, “On memory in climate data”
Pauli Lappi, “Check please? Waste disposal payments in mining and nuclear power”
David Garcia Leon, “The implications of droughts for the European economy”

December 3rd, 4:30pm
Sala Berengo, Ca’ Foscari
Alessandra Gilibert, “Before the agora. Civic community and public space in the ancient Near East”

December 12th, 4:30pm
Sala Berengo, Ca’ Foscari

These projects have received funding from the European Union’s Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under the Marie Skłodowska-Curie grant agreement No. 703187, 705408, 748066, 703895, 701785.