From level A1 to C2
Year 2022/2023

Ca' Foscari School for International Education (CFSIE) offers Italian language courses open to everyone, from level A1 to C2, according to the relevant CEFR framework. All courses are held by highly qualified Italian native speakers, offering students the opportunity to acquire all the skills required to learn Italian according to the desired level.

The Italian language courses in the academic year 2022/2023 will be available in 3 quarterly sessions, aiming at ensuring greater learning continuity allowing students to complete up to 3 consecutive language levels in one academic year.

The three sessions are scheduled as follows:

- First session: September-December
- Second session: January-March
- Third session: April-June

In order to enable prospective students to start or continue their Italian language training, despite the restrictions imposed by the current pandemic, the courses of the first session will be held entirely online. As far as the following sessions are concerned, updates will be published online as soon as available.

But exactly what is an online course?
The courses offered by SIE feature:
- live streaming classes in which students can follow the teacher and interact with him/her and with the entire class (synchronous mode);
- online labs in small groups, to ensure a good oral interaction;
- individual activities to develop reading and writing skills.

Length
10 hours of self-learning for all levels
50 hours in case of A1 and A2 levels, 70 hours for higher levels, courses last 10-12 weeks

Organisation
Live streaming classes (synchronous) held by linguistic experts, oral production and writing labs on Moodle platform, corrected by the language experts, self-learning classes on a dedicated platform.

Participants
From a minimum of 10 to a maximum of 25 students per class.

Certificate
At the end of the course, on condition that at least 70% of the total hours (including self-learning) are attended and the final test is passed, students are awarded a participation and profit certificate.

Technical requirements
These are onliine courses. A recent PC, notebook or tablet, a microphone and webcam connected to the hardware, as well as a fast Internet connection are required.
