VENICE SHORT FILM WORKSHOP

6th – 13th August, 2017

Addressed to aspiring filmmakers, the Venice Short Film Workshop is a full intensive course, which offers a complete training on diverse themes: planning a story, shooting, acting and editing. Participants will create short films in a “boot camp” environment, promoting creativity and maximizing collaboration, and will have the opportunity to stimulate their talent and enhance their capabilities.

STRUCTURE

- introductory classes: film language and elements of storytelling
- group project: in the last three days of the workshop participants, organised in random groups, will develop a script for a brief short film. Writing, production, directing and editing are self managed in the tradition of famous cinema dance workshop developed by FAMU Prague, whose instructors are present.
- entertainment and professionalism: chance plays a role as the groups are formed randomly, and a huge aspect of the exercise is “unpredictability”, driven by a particular and fascinating...ritual.

LOCATION

Venice, as a location, is a further added value of the workshop. The unique beauty, history and magic of the city all offer a suggestive setting for the young aspiring filmmakers, who come from every corner of the world.

DATES

August 6th – 13th

COST

The price per person of the workshop includes the welcome dinner, one walking city tour, lecturing on Monday and Tuesday, 3-day shooting workshop and the final screening event of the short films made by participants.

- Price per person: € 1.500
- Price per person: € 2.000 (including 7 nights accommodation in double/triple rooms)
