* Students may add a MINOR amongst elective and extra credits. For more information see www.unive.it/minor Students can be exempted from the exam by presenting English language certificates (C1 level or higher) recognised by the University, www.unive.it/language-requirements. For further information please write to didattica.economia@unive.it.

* The 12 CFU should preferably be selected from the courses that have not already been chosen, or from the electives recommended for the degree course in the following list, or in any case from the formal courses offered in the degree courses in Economics and Business (ET4), Business Administration (ET11) and International trade and tourism (ET30). Any different courses chosen are to be authorised by the Teaching Committee which will verify whether they are coherent with the proposed programme (for the application timing and procedures please check page of the study course www.unive.it/degree/et4 at the path Study > Study plan). Coherence refers to individual study plans and will therefore take into consideration the suitability of the motivations supplied. The study plan will not be approved if there are serious inconsistencies.

Starting from the 2023-24 cohort, the course English for Economics and Business will be offered at the first year.
1st year students enrolled in the 2023-24 academic year will refer to CLASS 1 (CLASS 3 is reserved to 3rd year students).PAY ATTENTION Prerequisites and priority examsStudents are advised to take note of the prerequisites and mandatory priority exams at the webpage of the study course www.unive.it/degree/et4 at the path Study > Exams.
