Abstract	This chair, the first one awarded to Ca' Foscari University of Venice, develops new teaching, pedagogical, research and policy engagement activities on the EU's approaches to digitalization of financial services. The main activities are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • deepen teaching in European Union studies embodied in an official curriculum of a higher education institution and provide in-depth teaching on European Union matters for future professionals in fields which are in increasing demand on the labour market; • leading Ca' Foscari University of Venice to raise its profile in European Union studies as a nexus for interdisciplinary teaching, research activities and international partnerships in the ambit of EU financial and banking studies; • strengthening civil society's shared knowledge of the EU by organising open events ("The Financial User 2.0") that make citizens familiar with essential political and legal frameworks and leave them better equipped to utilize the EU more actively; • fostering fruitful cooperation and partnership between academia, financial supervisors and policy-makers by inviting guest lecturers and speakers, organizing seminars and a final conference targeting academics, EU regulatory agencies and supervisors at local, national and European level.
